

Seminar

Collab History Seminar organized by the SNSF Project Group "Moral and Economic Entrepreneurship: A Collaborative History of Global Switzerland"

Autumn 2026, 14:30 – 16:30

Campus – Brig and online

Programme

Friday 25 September 2026

Bernhard C. Schär (UniDistance Suisse)

Title: Empire and Intimacy: Johannes von Müller and the Making of Modern History around 1800

Friday 23 October 2026

Caroline Montebello (UniDistance Suisse)

Title: Exhumer les corps, mesurer la race: les ossuaires du Valais comme terrain d'enquête en Europe centrale

Thursday 12 November 2026

Aretuza da Cruz Silva (Federal University of Espírito Santo)

Title: A Colony Called Leopoldina'. The Founding of a Private Colony by Swiss and Germans in Nineteenth-Century Brazil

Friday 18 December 2026

Michael Schmitz (UniDistance Suisse)

Title: Swiss Cacao Traders in Bahia: A Global History of the Cacao Trade, 1890–1945 (thesis chapter discussion)

The ColLab Seminar is a workshop-format seminar organised by the SNSF Project Group "Moral and Economic Entrepreneurship: A Collaborative History of Global Switzerland", and are devoted to discussion of ongoing research in Swiss global history, colonialism and adjacent themes; the format prioritises pre-circulated texts and collegial, research-focused exchange. To obtain the link for remote participation, please contact: Caroline Montebello.